FAQs

ClinCard Cardholder FAQ: USA

How do I use the ClinCard prepaid debit card?

1. You may use the card everywhere Visa debit cards are accepted – in stores, online, or by phone.
 - For in-store transactions, insert the chip card into the terminal and select "credit" or "debit."
 - Debit will require a Personal Identification Number (PIN) (see "How do I retrieve/change a PIN?").
2. Get cash using an ATM (requires PIN).
 - May incur a fee (see "Are there any fees when using the ClinCard prepaid debit card?").
3. Get a cash disbursement at a Visa-accepting location.

WHAT DOES FIFTH THIRD DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies (like us) need to know your personal information. Federal law gives companies the right to ask you for this info. Sharing better allows companies to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand our needs.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. The information can include: • Social Security number and income • Account history and account balances • Credit history and credit scores
How?	All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the next section, we'll let the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information (the reasons Fifth Third shares info) and whether you can limit this sharing.

REASON WE CAN SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION	DOES FIFTH THIRD SHARE?	CAN YOU STOP THIS SHARING?
For our everyday business purposes — to run our business, comply with regulatory requirements, maintain your accounts, respond to customers, and engage in marketing activities in regard to our business.	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes — to offer our products and services to you.	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies.	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your transactions and experiences.	No	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness.	No	We don't share
For our affiliates to market to you.	No	We don't share
For our affiliates to market to you.	No	We don't share

Questions? Please call the number on the back of your Card.

More info at:
Who is providing this notice? Fifth Third is the company that uses financial services products, such as banks, mortgage companies, insurance brokers, and insurance agencies.

What does Fifth Third protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secure facilities and buildings.
What does Fifth Third collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you: • Open an account with us or apply for a loan • Use your Fifth Third credit card • Use your Fifth Third credit card We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only: • Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness • Affiliates that use your information to market to you • Sharing for joint marketing purposes to market to you Bank laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. You can see the reasons your rights under applicable laws.
What happens when I stop sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?	Your choices will apply to everyone in your account.
